The Story of Winckley Square, Preston

Marian Roberts, the much loved author of The Story of Winckley Square, Preston, was one of Preston's leading local historians in the late twentieth century. Her book, published in 1988, has long been out of print.

Before Marian died in February 2007, she gave her wholehearted approval to her 'Story' being republished. The new edition will be published under the auspices of Preston Historical Society in 2008, with both Alan Crosby and Aidan Turner-Bishop, assisting Andrew Mather in the research, editing and production of this new edition.

All proceeds from the sale of the book will be donated to St Catherine's Hospice, as Marian did with her own book. The complete cost of producing this edition has been sponsored both by individuals and Preston businesses, thus ensuring the payment for your book contributes to the great work of St Catherine's Hospice.
